C. Read the following passage and choose the best answer. (4 points)

Passage 1

These days many people eat convenience food. This means food which is already prepared, in packets or cans, or often frozen. People also go to fast-food restaurants a lot, where they buy take-away meals. This type of food is suitable in the busy, modern world, but it often contains a lot of fat or sugar. If you eat a lot of sugar, dentists say you might get holes in your teeth. Similarly, if you eat a lot of fat, doctors will tell you that this is bad for your heart.

Most scientists say that the best food is fresh, natural food such as fruit and vegetables. They also say that we should cut down on the amount of fat we eat. Nowadays we eat too much oil and butter. Instead of frying food in fat, we should lightly boil it, steam it or eat it raw, as in salads. Food which hasn't been cooked often contains more vitamins. These vitamins are often destroyed in the process of cooking.

Of course, it is as we get older that we start to notice the effect of bad eating habits. When we're young, we don't have to worry too much, but it's a good idea to develop good eating habits as early in life as possible.

22. Why is uncooked food often better for us?

- A) Its vitamins are not damaged
- B) It has less sugar and fat
- C) It is easier to eat in this busy world
- D) It can be bought from fast-food restaurants

23. What is wrong with convenience food?

- A) It has a lot of fat and sugar
- B) It must be eaten within a short time
- C) It is not properly prepared
- D) It is not suitable for young people

24. What do scientists suggest people not to eat ?

- A) food that is not heated
- B) food cooked in water
- C) food cooked in oil
- D) natural food

25. The word "cut down" in line 7 is closest in meaning to.....

- A) concern
- B) decrease
- C) consume
- D) supply

26. The word " it" in line 8 refers to.....

- A) oil
- B) butter
- C) fat
- D) food

People in most parts of the world eat meat. However, in many cultures throughout history, some people have thought it's wrong to use animals for food. People who do not eat meat are called vegetarians. Some of the most famous philosophers were vegetarians. Buddha, the great Indian philosopher, did not eat meat. Also, Plato, the great Greek philosopher, thought that human beings should not eat other animals, but rather use plants for their food.

27. According to the passage,.....

- A) eating meat in many cultures was thought wrong
- B) eating meat was thought wrong throughout history
- C) some people, throughout history, did not eat meat
- D) some people, throughout history, could not eat meat

D. Read the following passage and match each paragraph with one of the headings. There is one extra heading. (3 points)

- A. Use interesting and new words in your speech
- B. Use an index card in your speech
- C. The audience wants you to be successful
- D. Use pictures to show specific points
- E. The importance of pauses in speech

30..... After you've written your speech, it can be helpful to put it on small index cards. They are easier to carry around, and because you don't want to spend your entire time on reading your notes, index cards will help you feel more willing to have a quick look at the cards when you open them. But don't use index cards as a support and try to pay attention to your audience as well.

31.....An audience is made of people who are not unlike you. They come to hear you because you have something important to say. Also, because they don't want their time to be wasted, it's in their best interest for you to succeed.

32.If you don't include pauses, you might as well sing your audience a bedtime lullaby-the effect will be same. While pauses are always important, it is important to have them in every occasion.

33.Your speech will get very boring if you repeatedly use the same words. So use interesting and different words and phrases and keep things new, and avoid using repetitive sentences very often in your speech.
