Tired of sleeping on the floor, a young man in Tehran saved up for years to buy a real bed. For the first time in his life, he became proud of owning a bed which had mattress and springs. Because the weather was very hot, he carried the bed onto the roof of his house. He slept very well for the first two nights , but on the third night, a gust of wind blew out and sent the bed crashing into the yard. Although the bed was smashed into pieces, the man was unhurt. Glancing at the bits of the bed that laid around him , the man got up and took the remains of the bed into the room and went asleep again.

44.Where was the young man from?

45.Why did he buy the bed?
